

---

Responding to Sexual Assault on International University Campuses: Case Study & Best Practices

---

International Educators of Illinois 2020 Annual Conference

Illinois Wesleyan University

March 13, 2020

Diego Quiroga

Universidad San Francisco de Quito-USFQ
Vice President of Research & International Programs

Alexandra Velasco

Universidad San Francisco de Quito-USFQ
Director, Strategic Partners & Innovation for Internationalization avelasco@usfq.edu.ec

Priscila Baez

Universidad San Francisco de Quito-USFQ
Coordinator, Galapagos Semester Program
pbaezb@usfq.edu.ec

Patrick Mathis

Title IX Solutions, LLC
Co-Founder & Managing Member patrick@titleixsolutions.com

Tom Denton

Title IX Solutions, LLC
Co-founder & Director of Investigations tom@titleixsolutions.com

<https://titleixsolutions.com/>

<https://www.usfq.edu.ec/opi/Paginas/default.aspx>

---

Presentation Overview

---

- I. Welcome & Overview—Patrick Mathis

- II. Universidad San Francisco de Quito-USFQ Office of International Programs' efforts to improve institutional response to incidents of sexual harassment and assault—Diego Quiroga/Alexandra Velasco
  - a. Motivations for change
  - b. Strategy for updating campus policy
  - c. Importance of creating a support system for international students

- III. Best practices for addressing sexual assault abroad—Patrick Mathis
  - a. Background of sexual assault abroad
  - b. Concerns for U.S. schools
  - c. Concerns for International schools
  - d. U.S. School policy
  - e. International schools
  - f. Coordination between U.S. and International Schools
  - g. Coordination within U.S. schools—Study Abroad & Title IX Offices

- IV. Case Study: USFQ Office of International Programs (OPI)—Priscila Baez
  - a. USFQ OPI introduction
  - b. Bridging the gap between U.S. policies and USFQ practices
  - c. Current Solution & Ongoing Efforts
    - i. Sharing the policy with international students
    - ii. Ongoing orientation
    - iii. Student Wellness Advisor
    - iv. First Responders training for USFQ faculty and staff
  - d. Conversations with international universities

- V. Approaching investigations on an international university campus—Tom Denton
  - a. First Responders Training in Quito
  - b. Investigating an incident in Ecuador
  - c. Reasons for and against conducting an international investigation

VI. Q & A—Tom, Patrick, and Priscila